THE TRUTH.

The Premature Retirement of Government Servants.

III.

It is given to few mortals to pronounce the last word on any given subject of moment. We are far from claiming the right or the finality to do so. It would not surprise us to find thinkers joining issue with us on the wisdom or otherwise of the policy we have been examining in detail in the previous articles. But a few more arguments from our view-point may not be considered supererogatory.

Barring the lissom and elastic frame associated normally with the years on the halcyon side of the first 50 years, we should like to pit some of the well-seasoned and experienced officers retired within the last decade or two against their successors in office, not only in point of efficiency and mentality, but likewise in the items of driving power, the quick grasp of the salient points of any given case or matter, etc.,—in short in all those "tricks and manners" which go to make up the "rum," compound yclept an able official. Give each couple, the retired and his successor, the papers of any given case, at any given time and place, and let each evolve the sense thereof, and arrive at a passable decision and we would not hesitate to back the experience, certainty, originality and all-round-ness of the veteran. Indeed, this method of examination used to be in vogue some years ago. The departmental [illegible]s of a certain period included [illegible]ability to undergo this or[illegible] which, at times, betrayed [illegible] the fatuitous incapacity of [illegible] novice to read and decipher [illegible] manuscripts in the official [illegible]rnacular.

Let us next hie ourselves back [illegible]nto ancient and mediaeval history, as garnered from sacred and [illegible] [illegible]ened to the reverent [illegible] [illegible]-divin[illegible] [illegible]ame" [illegible] [illegible]ittle-[illegible]body can [illegible] if he is within [illegible] of a court-[illegible] [illegible] character, [illegible] prowess are the ne plus [illegible]ingly accomplishments [illegible] deeds, and differ toto coelo from those of modern rulers, they have not by divine grace ceased to be held in high esteem even in these sordid and degenerate times. We will borrow for the sake of our parable the policy of Rama in the matter of those seasoned old casks, the experienced officers of a by-gone administration who had grown grey and hoary in the service of the state. It is recorded in the historical section of the Ramayana, not merely in the miraculous or legendary chapters, that the great Rama did not only keep on his father's great ministers and advisors in situ in their respective former positions, but also vouchsafed to them privileges denied to younger men and allowed them to address him in the same familiar and patriarchal style and words as they used to do in his father's time, when he was not yet the king. Vasishta, Sumannta, etc., afford notable examples. The former was likewise Rama's hereditary Guru, and the latter used to alternate his other high functions with the royal charioteering. Their deeds are immortalized in those chapters of the world-renowned epic, which record the melancholy incidents of Rama's exile. There is every reason to infer a similar treatment of other officials.

Later historical references can easily be unearthed, if need be, from the annals of the great monarchs, such as Mandhata, Nala, etc., but we do not wish to lengthen our theme, for the modern reader is notoriously impatient of prolonged contradictions.

Slithering down to the Dvapara periods, we will pull up the example of the Yadavas, from whom the Kauravas and Pandavas claim their descent. The aged Bhishma remained to the last the trusted forefather and Counsellor of both belligerents. Vyasa was not superannuated even after 55, nor were the Brahman warriors, Drona, Kripa, etc., sent home with a fraction of their emoluments to chew the cud of reflection [illegible] [illegible]ignited, indebted and neglected by the ingrate Kauravas, hear[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [ that haughty arrogance always associated with high office. Least of all we never suspected in him a sense of humour and that of the grim variy. We now see how appearances are deceitful and what a silent volcano is pious, Sastriac superior of the punitive department. Even here his moods of correction were limited to humbler beings of the inoffensive kind who could be hauled up on the pretence of the least or no offence at all by the exercise of the most dangerous powers vested in the hands of the police generally, but never for a moment dream that he has the courageous conduct of giving it disagreeably hot to the gods superior to him. Precisely that is the meaning we read into an advertisement inviting applications for the post of a manager, the present incumbent being for some mysterious reason shunted out. Our readers may ask where is the wonder in advertising for a manager's post. We tell them it lies in the Inspector-General of Police letting the cat out of the bag that in these days Inspector-Generals of Police are but general Inspectors, and that even the appointment of a non-gazetted officer does not lie in their hands, and that applicants need entertain no false hopes that the last word is with them, and it is for the Olympic gods above to do what they choose. What a fall, if that be so! Have the days of Madhava Rows, Carrs and other officers, even those of the slavish, red-tape species like the late Mr. B. K. Venkatavaradaiengar gone and gone for ever? Has the Inspector-General of Police such an awful dread of the present Councillor who has the Police Portfolio? It is for him only to recommend. And why this ugly mention that the appointment does not rest in him? Does it not savour of some mild protest against the meddling methods obtaining now? Should such inner official horrors be washed in public print? Then it is better to reign in the midst of district alarm as all highest of a District than to reign in the horrible place of the late Mr. Narahari Row's bungalow with the threat of Damocles sword coming on his recommendation to cut his recommendations in twain. Perhaps if the Inspector-General had ben suggested to put Non-Brahmin preferred, then with impunity he would have deleted the sentence: "The appointment rests with the Government." We earnestly call the attention of the Government that heads of departments are not driven to commit to such disagreeable suggestions for the public to read all [illegible] department t[illegible]

Civil Officer.

The title to our short note is deliberately chosen. There are those who uncharitably attack us that it is we who hounded out the Civil Office and there are others who say we were the unsparing agency to collect facts to send packing out of some time the incoming Civil Officer from the office of the Excise Commissioner whose intoxicating fumes turned his head giddy. Perhaps the Government which is assiduously civil towards offending Gazetted Officers has learnt by this time that Mr. P. H. Krishna Row has learnt of civility to be Civil Officer, and that Mr. Hassan Ali will learn the required amount of that most requisite quality in the courteous courtly surroundings of Mysore. We despair of Mr. Hassan Ali learning anything that is valuable in this advanced age of his official career. May we ask the Government, if it believes our charge proven, is that the treatment they have to accord an officer of his rank and experience? Would under similar circumstances they have spared an humble subordinate? May we know if the Revenue Commissioner is of opinion corrective punishments consist in harmless transfers to healthy districts? We are afraid that putting two and two together, there is a powerful somebody or more than one of this mighty hierarchy who has a different angle of vision in the case of Muhammadan gentlemen to look unnoticed of their doings, and who focus all their fiery look on others as to burn them to ashes for faults not even one-tenth in their enormity which the former commit. The erst-while Shimoga Superintendent of Police, the present Tumkur brother of the trade with his junior in Bangalore who was to a considerable extent responsible for the Bavari Bungle, the Civil Officer under orders of transfer to Mysore are all having a grand time of their job however crookedly it may be done. How we wish the same immunity shown to others! Alas poor Sri Narasimhasastry and Iyo! poor Rajagopalachariu! Why were you born as Brahmins and why worse you entered the Police Department in these days of stress and trouble? When will our magnanimous minded Sirdar Saheb take note of such vagaries and when will he redress the grievances of unoffending beings? We know that it is too much to expect our beloved sovereign to note these small details of the State machinery, and we know also where Mr. Raghavendra Rao does not care a bang, Mr. Banerji does not outstep the limits of his own authority which he exercises as a model to others. We despaired of rains, and they have come, and we despair of justice and we expect it to be shown, and there should lie consolation of us all who have been

Ceylon. The gentleman not only would not give the note, but be seriously advised the young man not to go to Ceylon as he would have to return in the very steamer that took him to that island. The enterprising Madrasis were not diverted from their purpose by this warning but went to Ceylon and reported themselves at the station. The station-master welcomed them and sent them into the town to hire lodgings for themselves. The Madrasis wandered about the place and came upon several vacant dwelling-houses but they could not obtain the lease of any of them. The owners very politely told them that they were not wanted in the town. The young men returned to the Station-master and told him what had happend. "Never mind," said that Nabob "You shall lodge in the Railway Station. But go and purchase provisions" The Madrasis sallied out a second time, but not with such stout hearts as before. They went from shop to shop and from bazaar to bazaar. But though there was no dearth of supplies, the Madrasis could not buy any provisions, for no one would sell them any. They wearily trudged back to the Railway Station and with rueful countenances appeared before the Station-master and detailed the circumstances to him. That Potentate wired to Government and the Chief Secretary to Government wired to the Superintendent of Military Supplies to issue provisions to the unfortunate railway employees. But the Superintendent wisely refused to comply with the requisition. He had no doubt, he said, a stock at the moment. But he had to replenish it from time to time by local purchases. And if the people boycotted him he situation would be serious. He advised an inquiry into the Station-master's conduct as the cause of the wholesale resignations of his subordinates. The advice of the Superintendent was adopted, an inquiry was held, the Station-master was transferred to the Central office, the employees who had resigned were taken back into service and the Madrasis were sent home.

All this happened more than half a century ago when a smaller percentage of people knew to read and write. Now, with the spread of literacy, we are confronted with a serious situation. We are flooded with applications for vacancies that have actually occurred and for vacancies that are likely to

It is high time, we think, that definite conditions of service were laid down. How far may people in Government employ associate with private people? How low should they bow before their immediate superiors, how lower before their superiors' superiors, how lower still before their superiors and so on? How high may they draw themselves up before their subordinates, how higher before their subordinates' subordinates, how higher still before their subordinates and so forth? Unless there be definiteness about these things there can be no prevention of incidents such as what happened at the Mysore Government Press last week. There, Mr. Ramachachandra Mudaliar, usually so polite and smiling and kindly, with one stroke of his pen dismissed so many as one hundred and eighty-eight men from Government service! We have published in our issue of Thursday last the Government Press Employees' Memorial to Government. We fail to see anything objectionable in that memorial. The memorialists, no doubt, ask for a more sympathetic and less annoying Superintendent. Mr. Mudaliar could himself have shown more sympathy with the employees and consequently have given them less annoyance. He could have called the men up either together or in batches or even singly, inquired into their grievances, promised to place their representations before Government and undertaken to support their reasonable demands. He would then have proved to them that there was (as we know there really is), more sympathy in his constitution than they were aware of. And far from annoying them he would have put up with any annoyance they caused him. But for once Mr. Mudaliar lost his temper. And the result is the sad spectacle of one hundred and eighty-eight men turned out of employ, one hundred and eighty-eight families deprived of bread. We believe that if Mr. Mudaliar realised the magnitude and the far-reaching consequences of the step he has taken, he would himself have recommended a reversal of his order & called the men back to service. Such an act, we think, would be most graceful. It would obviate all unpleasant actions by higher officers. We strongly recommend the act to Mr. [illegible]aliar. Camp. No. F.

Office of the Inspector General of Police in Mysore.

Dated Camp. Mysore 30th October 1920.

Dear sir.

In reply to your D.O. letter Camp No. G.54 dated 29th October about the article in the 'Truth' of the 18th instant regarding the humour of the Inspector General of Police, I write to say that as the work of Mr. Shama Iyengar, Manager of this office has not been satisfactory I was driven to the necessity of thinking of a change.

2. It was so far back as January last that I had the first occasion to find fault with him. On one Mr. Lakshmana Char a retired Inspector of my Office complaining of delay in the disbursement of the pay and allowances due to him, I had to question the Manager, when the then Office Assistant Mr. Hayes said that Contractors also complained that the Manager was unnecessairly delaying payments.

In this connection I examined the Office cash also without notice in that month and found an excess of Rs.1-4-0, I think. The Manager was warned.

3. Subsequently I had occasion to point out delay on his part in some cases and his not controlling and supervising the work of the office establishment. I explained to him that my first recommendation in his favor was not approved by Government and I had to write again, that in the circumstances I was very much disinclined to report against him and that he should not drive me to the necessity of reporting.

4. Shortcomings were often coming to my notice. Once I wanted to stop his pay for some days; but as he begged hard, I cancelled the order and warned him to show improvement.

5. Next he delayed unnecessirly the preparation of the annual report on the Arms Regulation.

6. I issued various instructions for despatch of

of work in the office. These he failed to give effect to.

7. I told him more than once, that as Manager he was expected to get work done by others or to do the work himself. His contention is that the officials of the office are inefficient; and he does not admit that a Manager should be such as to do any work which might be difficult for others.

8. Lastly he delayed the preparation of the annual Administration report though the preparation thereof was being urged by me.

9. It was after this that I made up my mind to be rid of him. Before writing to Government I wanted to select a competent successor and so advertised in the Government Gazette for applicants.

10. Generally the places advertised are those that the advertising authority can himself fill. As the place advertised for is not such I made the matter clear. I meant nothing more and it never struck me that this harmless advertisement would form the subject of mischievous comment in a newspaper.

Yours sincerely

Inspector General of Police.

Dear Mr. Subramania Iyer,

Please refer to correspondence ending with your C. No. F. dated the 30th Oct. 1920 re your Office Manager.

I am desired to observe that it is ~~xxxxxxxx~~ indeed very curious that applications were invited for the place of Manager when the place was not vacant. If you considered that the present incumbent was unfit for the place the appropriate course would have been ~~to have first got~~ rid of ~~him before~~ publicly calling for applications. It is not very clear from the correspondence whether you have ~~got~~ a new Manager ~~under orders~~. It is presumed ~~that you have not yet done so.~~ ~~In case~~ you are still of opinion that ~~the present Manager must be changed~~, may I suggest your sending up to Government ~~a proposal for~~ reversion or other suitable employment ~~for the man~~ together with any proposal you have to make in regard to filling up his place.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir,

With reference to your D.O. letter No. G 9936/ Police dated 20th instant, about the Office Manager of this office I write to say that it was my idea to follow up my letter written from Camp with proposals for filling up the place, after return to Head Quarters. As however the Manager was on leave on account of illness, I could not take the explanation. He was expected to come back on the 22nd instant; but has extended his leave. As soon as he returns to duty and furnishes the explanation I shall submit proposals for changing him.

Sir,

In continuation of correspondence ending with your letter No. G.9936/Police dated 20-11-20 about the Manager of my Office, I have the honor to enclose the explanation of Mr. Shamiengar, furnished after a delay of about two months, about the points referred to in my first letter about him. Except the portion referring to the Annual Administration Report, there is none others in this explanation calling for any remarks of mine. The Administration Report was no doubt sent on the 1st October 1920 but some alterations were proposed later making it clear that full and correct information had not been obtained in time.

2. Mr. Shamiengar has had a very fair trial. Even after his return on 1st December 1920 last from leave, and knowing the correspondence about him he has shown no improvement. I cannot continue him as Manager. Having been tried and found wanting, he can have no claim to a place in the Department on the Manager's pay and supersede others. If he is to remain in the Department at all, he will have to revert to his place on Rs.100/-. In regard to the matters dealt with in this paragraph, I believe there can be no difference of opinion.

3. My next point is that the continuance of Mr. Shamiengar in in service is, in the circumstances of the case, not of advantage. Being discontented, he will not and cannot turn out useful work. He says he has put in 27 years service and might be retired.

4. I enclose the applications of the marginally noted Officials, received in response to the advertisement. In the event of Mr. Shamaiengar being retired, I would recommend Mr. Panduranga Rao of the Efficiency Audit Department for the Manager's place. In the event of Mr. Shamiengar being continued in the Department, I would recommend Mr. S. Raja Rao, B.A., Inspector on Rs.100/- for the Manager's place. He was one of the applicants, when Mr. Shamiengar was selected in 1919. It will not be convenient to provide for Mr. Shamiengar in the Department and take an outsider also as Office Manager.

It was his custom to read his sermon and not too audibly. When the rector entered the pulpit it was a signal for certain members of his congregation to compose themselves for a dose. No one dozed then, or thought of dozing. Using no notes, he began to address them with a degree of eloquence, fluency and passion which went far to show that when a man has something to say he is endowed with the gift of power to say it. Evidently Mr. Campion had a great deal to say; but not the least mysterious part of the business was that not one of his hearers had a notion to whom he was saying it. That his words had a personal and particular application seemed plain; but to whom or what they applied was another matter. He exhorted all persons there to bare their breasts, take their courage in both their hands, and in the face of God and man make plain that which was hid;

It should, as far as possible, be seen that the indents for stores do not contain articles which are not really required. With this view the half-yearly registers of stock may be looked into to find out the opening balances of the same kind of articles and also whether those indented for have been utilized within a reasonable period. It is true that indents are checked by the Executive Engineer, but sometimes the check applied is of a mechanical nature, and often limited to a comparison with the last indent. As a result articles required ten years ago may continue to be indented for, although there may be no use for them under present conditions.

Inspector General of Police in Mysore,

Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to the advertisement in the MYSORE GAZETTE of the 7th instant, I beg to submit my candidature for the Manager's place of your office.

I have put in 22 years of service in the Government, having joined in August 1898. I started in the Plague Commissioner's Office and worked in the Secretariat for about two years up to August 1902 when my services were transferred to the newly formed Revenue Commissioner's office. I worked there for nine years up to June 1911 and joined the Economic Conference at its very inception and have been working as Head Clerk of the Board of Agriculture (then Agricultural Committee).

During the acute food situation of 1918-19, I was appointed as an Inspector of Civil Supplies in October 1918 and continued in that capacity till July 1920, when, owing to the general reduction in the Food Control Department, I was reverted to my place in the Board of Agriculture. I beg to submit herewith for your perusal a copy of the Food Controller's letter to the Board in this connection, which bears testimony to the good work done by me.

I need thus hardly submit that I have a good grounding in office routine and possess the requisite capacity to run an office.

I am a Matriculate of the Madras University and have passed the Local Service Revenue and Accounts (HIGHER) Examinations. My present permanent pay is Rs. 70.

Enclosed I submit copies of the opinions recorded in my Service Register by some of the eminent officers of the State.

Respected S i r ,

With reference to the advertisement in the Mysore Gazette inviting applicants for the post of the MANAGER in the Chief Office I beg to offer myself as a candidate for the post and submit that thisapplication of mine may be favourably considered.

I joined the Police Department on 26-8-1904 as a Probationary Police Inspector which guaranteed post was secured by me for having stood first in the Inspectors' Test after a year's training in the Police Training school. I have, since then served in the various branches of the Police Department as a Taluk Inspector, Prosecuting Inspector and Head Quarter Inspector and have given entire satisfaction to my superior officers and at no time and in no capacity have I given room for any complaint. Regarding my work, as could be seen from the recommendations made by several officers under whom I had the good fortune to serve. As for my qualifications, I beg to submit that I have taken the B.A., and L.L.B., degrees and have also passed the Revenue Higher grade, Criminal Higher grade, Accounts Higher grade, Civil Parts I and II and Registration examinations of theMysore Local Service, besides the Inspectors' Test.

I am in the Rs 80/- grade since 10-5-1918 and you were pleased to intimate to me about June 1919 that you have recommended me to the Rs 100/- grade and I presume that this reference is pending sanction of Government.

I respectfully submit that my qualifications and unblemished service of 16 years in the various branches of the Police Department may be kindly taken into consideration and my name recommended to Government for the Manager's post.

For which act of kindness, I shall ever be grateful.

To

The Inspector General of Police, in Mysore, B a n g a l o r e.

S i r,

I beg to bring the following few lines to your kind consideration and favourable orders.

I began my service in the Police Department on 26-8-1904 as a Probationary Inspector having secured that guaranteed post by standing first in the Inspectors' Examination after undergoing training in the Police Training School, Bangalore, for a year.

Since entering into service I passed Criminal (Higher) Revenue (Higher Grade), Accounts (Higher Grade) Civil Parts I and II and Registration of the Mysore Local Service ~~Local~~ Examinations and took the B.A. degree (Madras) and L.L.B (Bombay).

During the past 16 years of my service I have worked as Taluk Inspector, Prosecuting Inspector and Head Quarter Inspector and I boldly affirm that I have not given occasion for a n y complaint regarding my work in any of these capacities and that I have worked honestly and to the entire satisfaction of my superior officers can be seen from the reports made by the several officers under whom I had the good fortune to serve.

As the prospects of the qualified Inspectors used to be bettered by their being appointed as Amildars, I too qualified myself by passing the necessary examinations but just as I was in the run for the Amildari, the Government changed their policy by ordering that recruitment to the Amildari service would only be made from the Revenue Department, and I lost the prospects in that direction.

In the Police Department itself, for no fault of mine, I was superceded by some of my juniors such as Messrs. Bhogiah, Venkatapathiah and Venkatakrishniah as could be seen from the table based on the orders of the Inspector General of Police as published in the Police Gazettes) given below for the simple reason that I was not a graduate in law although I had otherwise qualified myself equally well by passing the Pleadership examinations.

Note:- (A) shows the date of supercessions.

(B) shows the date on which Mr. Bhogiah was reduced for misconduct.

(C) shows the date of supercession a 2nd time.

With a view to regain my place and have my prospects bettere in the Department I underwent training in the Law College at this advanced age of mine (38 years) without minding the enormous expense which I had to incur but with the hope of deriving corresponding advantage in course of time and took the L.L.B. Degree.

I submit that the Inspector General of Police may be pleased to kindly consider the above mentioned facts and do me justice by restoring me to my place above Messrs. Bhogiah and others who have superceded me and get me a place in the Rs 150/- grade in any of the existing vacancies.

I beg to remain,

Office of the Inspector General of Police in Mysore,

Dated, Bangalore, 13th June 1919.

Dear Mr. Isvaran,

I am in receipt of your letter No. 670 of the 7th instant, recommending leave to Mr. H.V.Krishna Rao. I have no objection to his studying for the L.L.B., As a matter of fact, I should be very glad indeed if everybody tries to qualify himself for higher places; but it must be clearly understood that he should continue in service.

2. If on the otherhand he wishes to resign and practise as an Advocate I have no objection either; but he must resign at once. I shall not grant leave in these circumstances.

3. I may also add that having known his intentions, I have, with a view to keep him on, recommended him to the Rs 100 grade in supercession of some others. Let him think over the matter carefully. If he elcts to resign let him resign at once. If he elects to continue in service let him say so, and I shall grant leave. If he elects to continue in service and then resigns after passing the L.L.B, I might come inthe way of his being enrolled.

As I have said above, let him think over the matter carefully and come to final decision.

Yours sincerely,
Sd/- A.Subramanya Iyer,

S i r,

Considering the kind support that is referred to in this letter, I give up the idea of resigning and decide to continue in service and try to take a degree in Law for the purpose of bettering my prospects in the Department.

I beg that leave applied for viz. 3½ months without pay, may kindly be sanctioned at an early date to enable me to join the College at Bombay by the 1st July 1919.

Respected Sir,

In pursuance of an advertisement published in the Mysore Gaizette dated the 7th Inst. Part VI page 640, I beg to submit an application in the prescribed printed form for the post of Manager in your honor's office.

I beg to submit the following for your honor's Kind Consideration and favorable disposal.

I am a B.A. and an F.L. - of 25 years standing - of the Madras University and I have passed the following - Local Tests - Revenue Higher, Criminal Higher, Accounts Higher, Registration, and Prisons parts I + II. I have been a Sub-Registrar these 23 years and having been started on Rs 35/- as Sub-Registrar, I am at present drawing Rs 80/-

Under such circumstances that is, with such small pay, after so long a service and with the faint hope there is of any betterment of prospects in the Registration Department, it is quite natural for one to endevour one's best to get a shift to another department, where one can rise and get on pretty well. Hence I made persistent efforts to get myself transferred to the Revenue or other departments — Vide my two memorials addressed to Sir. M. Visweswaraiya and Submitted through the District Registrars of Chitaldroog and Hassan. But all my endevours, hitherto, have resulted in nothing and I am still rotting where I started life on a miserable pittance.

I now request your honor to generously consider my case and to recommend me to Government as a fit candidate for the vacant post of Manager in your honor's office.

Believing that what was hitherto impossible for me, may be possible now under the influence of your honor's beneficent patronage, magnanimous heart and bounteous hand.

Respected Sir,

In response to the advertisement published in the Mysore Gazette calling for applications for the post of Manager of your office, I beg to offer myself as a candidate for the same.

Particulars regarding my qualifications, service, pedigree and pay have already been given in the application* submitted last year when the post had been rendered vacant by the retirement of the former Manager Mr. S. Srinivasiengar. A kind reference may be made to the same. I may be permitted here to add that I am the only graduate in the backward community of Mahrattas in the Province. I have qualified myself by passing all the local tests required for an Amildari and occupy a fairly high place in the eligible list of candidates for the said post.

I have been the police section case-worker in the Secretariat for the past nearly two years and pray that the above post may be kindly conferred on me in accordance with Government Order No.79/E.A.G. dated 20th December 1916 governing the employment of members of backward communities in public service.

To

C. S. Balasundaram Iyer, Esq., B.A.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of H.H.

Respected Sir,

I beg to submit that my application to the Inspector General of Police praying for the post of store-keeper on Rs.100/- in his office was farwarded to that officer with this office endorsement No.G.23521, dated the 15th April 1919. The next day I paid my respects to Mr. Mir Humza Hussain, the then Inppector General of Police, who was pleased to assure me that my case would receive due consideration, I regret to state that my prayer was not favourably considered by the present Inspector General of Police.

2. I have put in a service of over twenty one years 14 of which in this Secretariat and 7 in the Registration Department as Sub Registrar. Despite this long service, my pay continue to be only Rs.80/- in the grade of Rs.50-5-100 among the First Division Clerks. I am a graduate of the Madras University and have passed the Revenue, Criminal, Registration and Accounts Tests of the Mysore Local Service Examinations. I belong to a backward Community, viz, Mahratta which has not yet been fairly represented at all in the public service. In fact, I dare say I am the only graduate of the community in the State. I have had so many disappointments in official life, that I should consider myself very unlucky in spite of the laudable encouragement received by other communities in these days at the hands of the generous Government.

3. As regards the respectability of my family I might be permitted to state that my father, Mr. Venkata Rao Sindhe, served for more than twenty seven years and retired as Second Grade Amildar of Channapatna Taluk, Bangalore District, earning a good name and my uncle served as a Police Inspector and died in harness in the year 1897.

4. I am at present working in the Police Section of the Secretariat and venture to state that I have got myself very farily acquainted with the work of that department. I beg to state that after the retirement of Mr. Kodandapani Mudaliar, Manager of the Senior Surgeon's Office, a clerk of this Secretariat viz., Mr. Siva Rao was appointed in his place.

5. From the gradation list of the Establishment of the office of the Inspector General of Police it will be seen that there is no graduate in that office.

6. In pursuance of Government Order No.79/E.A.G. dated 20th December 1916, members of communities who are backward in tion have to be more largely represented in public service than present and at least 25% of the appointments made in a year in a department or a district have to be given to qualified members of backward communities.

7. Under these circumstances I humbly pray that I may be appointed as Manager of the Office of the Inspector General of Police which has now become vacant consequent on the retirement of Mr. S. Srinivasa Iyengar.

For which act of kindness I shall be ever thankful.

EXPLANATION.

Exhibit 4 7/12/24

The several points appearing in the D.O. of the Inspector General of Police dated the 30th October 1920 to the Chief Secretary to Government, on which my explanation would seem to be required appear to me to be the following:-

(1) That I delayed payment to Contractors

(2) That I delayed disbursing the pay of one Mr. Lakshmana Char

(3) That there was an excess of Rs 1-4-0 in cash, at the time of inspection by the Inspector General

(4) That I did not properly supervise and control the office establishment

(5) That I delayed the preparation of the annual report of the Arms Regulation.

(6) That there was delay in the preparation and submission of the annual Administration Report,

(7) That the instructions given to me for despatch of work was not duly carried out by me.

I beg now to most ~~XXX~~ humbly and respectfully submit the following explanation in respect of the above items.

I. It comes as a great surprise to me for the first time that Mr. Hayes mentioned to the Inspector General 12 months ago " that contractors complained of delay in payments to them". No mention was made of this to me either by the Office Assistant or by the Inspector General and it is a complaint that has really no reference to the Office Manager's work. Payments to contractors are not in this office. Bills of Contractors are received by Office Assistant and checked by the Store-keeper and approval by the Inspector General , are entered in a Register and resubmitted to the Inspector General ~~for~~ after which they are returned to the Contractors for presentation to the Comptroller's office for audit and further action. The bills are thus handled by the Office Assistant and the Store-keeper and passed on to the Accounts Branch. The date of receipt and of verification are noted on the bills and delay could have been duly noticed then and there. But to my surprise I came to know of this so called complaint only now.

II. The circumstances which led to the delay in the disbursement of tMr. Lakshmana Char's pay are as follow:-

The Inspector General had himself ordered that the pay of this retired Inspector should be withheld as he had failed to render satisfactory account of the large advance made to him for meeting the feeding expenses of Police officers and men deputed for special duty in connection with the visit of His Excellency the Viceroy. The balance due from that Inspector had to be recovered from his pay and orders were required. Immediately on receipt of orders, the balance of the amount due was sent to the party concerned.

III. Regarding the item of ₹ 1-4-0 alleged to have been found as excess in the cash examined by the Inspector General I respectfully submit that the cash in my possession was correct to the last pie and the amount in question was really no excess at all. The mistake lay entirely with the Head Accountant who maintains the cash book. Kind reference is invited to the Office Mannual pages 456- In this instance double entries for the same amount were made by the Head Accountant. The amount represents the arrears of subscription due by peon Bhyra towards the Provident Fund and subscriptions. The cash was correct ~~but the~~ but the account kept was wrong on account of this double entry in a single deduction in payment. This was explained to the Inspector General of Police at the time of the inspection.

IV. As regards the delay in the preparation of the annual report under the Arms Regulation, an explanation which was called for from me at the time, has already been submitted. This work properly devolved on the Head Clerk(vide office Mannual page 10).But the Head clerk who had to frequently go to camp neglected this duty and as the office itself was short handed and several of the clerks new, the work had unfortunately to await completion by another clerk who could be depended on to do it well. The real delay however was due to the non-receipt of the report from the Mysore District Magistrate till the middle of April, though several reminders and telegrams were sent. This was brought to the notice of the Government and the Government have issued a strict order to the District Magistrate in this connection. Vide G. No. 23224 GR dated 8 April/20.

In spite of all these difficulties,the report was despatched to Government on 19-5-20 while the date on which it was sent in the previous year was on 20-5-19, a fact which speaks for itself

V. The delay in the preparation of the annual Report is the unkindest cut of all. The said report is due at the Secretariat on 1st October and it did duly reach that office on that date. A comparison of the dates on which the reports of previous years as per margin reached the Government will show how underserved this charge against me is. I exerted myself to the atmost with the assistance of a couple of Clerks in the preparation of various statements and of this report. A kind perusal of dates on which I submitted portions of the draft for approval, will show how early the work was taken on hand and how expeditiously the whole work was being pushed through. I took up the drafting of the report on 1st September and the whole report had been drafted by the 18th September 1920. It is most painful to me to learn that honest and hard work which I expected would elicit approbation, should have been made a ground of complaint against me.

1) 19-10-1918
2) 24-10-1919

VI. The last item in the list of complaints against me is a general one and it is difficult for a subordinate in my position to offer an explanation in a case like this. In the very nature it would be impossible for a subordinate official to ignore the instructions given by a superior officer holding the responsibile position such as the Inspector General of Police does, for such course of conduct would have resulted in my instant dismissal. I have promptly obeyed alllorders and tried my best to carry out all such instructions as were given to me without any avoidable delay. The office consists of 5 branches as specified in the Office Mannual with distinctive and divided responsibilities and at the head of each of them, there is a 1st grade Clerk ~~Clerk~~ and he being the senior official in charge of the branch, is expected to deal with the correspondence as per orders of the officer passed on each subject. With a view to secure quick despatch of work I have been taking all difficult and important files on my own shoulders and dealing with them unhesitatingly fully realising my responsibility. I have not been backward in taking ~~up~~ the work which might be found difficult by others, which fact I believe might very well be gathered from the files themselves, as such files are referred by the Inspector General of Police for my personal attention and submission.

7. The work in the office has considerably increased of late ~~for the~~ for the following few reasons:-

(1) Owing to the recent reorganisation scheme of which the scheme of recruitment of Sub Inspectors was introduced in place of the old staff of Jamadars. While the latter staff of officers (Jamadars) were being dealt with in Districts by the Deputy Commissioners, the new staff of Sub Inspectors are directly to be dealt with in this office, thereby resulting in the increase of correspondance.

(2) The introduction of new system of Disposal numbers, has also increased the work of the office to a considerable extent.

(3) The correspondance connected with the Motor Vehicles Registration is an addition after the Office Mannual was brough into force and is being attended to by an overworked Clerk.

(4) According as the work in the different branches in the Comptroller's office and in the Secretariat, has been standardised and regulated, the flow of correspondance has naturally increased with this office.

and (5) The work in the records has also considerably increased but the establishment of the office has remained what it was some years ago and with no improvement in the recruitment of the staff . There have been frequent and constant changes in the staff on account of leave and transfer etc.

8. Shortcomings in the working of the Provincial office like this, have been naturally not unusual but all steps are being taken to avoid such things as much as possible. Mistakes or omissions however trivial and unintentional they may be, and which are due to carelessness of the case wrokers are being visited with punishments of fine then and there, as might be gathered from the list of fines deducted every month. Under these circumstances I beg humbly to submit that delay and shortcomings, if any, are being tried to be prevented as much as possible.

9. I beg further to add that I joined this office in the full hope of earning some enhanced pension, especially in view of my long service of 27½ years and advancing age. I have just completed 49th year of age and am only awaiting the term to entile me to claim optional pension after a completed service of 30 years. As on account of obvious reasons my present pay is hardly sufficient to make both ends meet and as I have had no experience of any other avocation in life but Government service I can ill afford to seek any long leave on loss of pay, just at the present unfavourable time.

10. I have only to add in conclusion that I have not lost all hope of still being able to give satisfaction to the Inspector General of Police, whatever dissatisfaction he has had with me or my work, it seems to me to be all due to want of clear under-understanding of his intention and ideas, which I believe to be entirely due to want of facility for showing one's capacity and aptitude for work. I have attended office invariably before the office hour and have been the very last to leave it and have worked every day overtime, irrespective of holidays and sundays with the sole object of getting his appreceation, as to him I owe my present position. On account of frequent changes of Office Assistants and also on account of there being no Office Assista at all for some time just at the busy season of the annual accounts and reports etc., and above all for want of competent case workers in the office, the work could not be get through with greater facility than what it was found possible to do. I dare say that if even now another chance of another year or s is given to me I would be able to show better work and give greater satisfaction to my superior officer, as I have now gaine sufficient experience of the requirements expected of me and can adjusted myself to the work much better than here-to-fore. If this my humble request does not commend itself to the Inspector General of Police, I beg to state that I might in the alternative be transferred to the Executive on my present pay which has been graciously bestowed upon me by Government or even to any other Department of Government service on that pay, especially in view of an increased pension for which at least, if not for anything better, I am only anxiously looking forward to. I have had training in both the executive and the Prosecut side of Police work under the ablest officers and have worked up with success the most difficult of cases and pray for a kin perusal of the extract from my service Register which is herewith submitted.

Respectfully submitted.

I found Shama Iyengar, to be very intelligent and useful official, and I hope he will get on well in the Sub Courtto which he has been sent on promotion. I should like to take him back to my own Court when a suitable opportunity offers.
